Leach's approach to parenting is based on the latest research and her own extensive experience working with families. She believes that parents should be confident and relaxed in their parenting style and that they should always put their child's needs first.

Babyhood is divided into three parts:

- The First Year: This section covers everything you need to know about caring for your baby in the first year, from feeding and sleeping to bathing and changing diapers.
- The Toddler Years: This section provides advice on how to handle the challenges of toddlerhood, from potty training to tantrums.
- The Pre-School Years: This section offers guidance on preparing your child for preschool and beyond.

Babyhood is an essential resource for new parents. It provides clear, concise advice on everything you need to know to care for your baby and help them thrive.
