This time, Ryan is faced with a global crisis that could bring the world to the brink of nuclear war. A rogue nation has stolen a nuclear weapon, and Ryan must race against time to find it before it's too late. Along the way, he'll encounter ruthless terrorists, treacherous politicians, and even his own government.

With his trademark blend of action, suspense, and political intrigue, Clancy weaves a gripping tale that will keep you turning the pages long into the night. Command Authority is a must-read for fans of Clancy and military thrillers alike.

A Look Inside Command Authority

Command Authority is divided into three parts, each of which focuses on a different aspect of the story. The first part introduces Ryan and his team and sets up the main conflict. The second part follows Ryan as he investigates the theft of the nuclear weapon and tries to track down the terrorists who stole it. The third part brings the story to a thrilling climax as Ryan and his team race to stop the terrorists from using the weapon.

Throughout the novel, Clancy provides readers with a detailed look at the inner workings of the CIA, the military, and the White House. He also offers a fascinating look at the complex world of international relations and the threats that face the United States in the 21st century.
