As the story begins, the team is already on high alert. Intelligence reports have indicated that a terrorist group is planning to detonate a nuclear bomb in the United States. The team must work quickly to identify the target and stop the attack. But just as they are closing in on the terrorists, a massive earthquake strikes the West Coast of the United States.

The earthquake causes widespread devastation, and the team is forced to divert its resources to rescue efforts. But even as they are struggling to save lives, they know that the nuclear threat still looms large. The terrorists are still at large, and they are determined to carry out their plan.

With the clock ticking down, the team must find a way to stop the terrorists and prevent a nuclear war. But as they get closer to their target, they realize that the enemy is more powerful than they ever imagined. The terrorists have their own nuclear weapons, and they are prepared to use them to achieve their goals.
