Grassroots football is the lifeblood of the sport. It's where the passion, the community, and the love of the game all come together. And it's where some of the most incredible stories are told.

In Tales From The Bus Leagues, award-winning journalist and author James Montague takes us on a journey through the heart of grassroots football. He meets the players, coaches, and fans who make it all happen, and he tells their stories with passion, humor, and insight.

We meet Sunday league teams battling it out for glory on muddy pitches, pub teams bonding over pints and banter, and youth teams dreaming of making it to the big time. We hear from players who have overcome adversity to follow their dreams, and from coaches who are dedicated to giving their players a chance to shine.

Tales From The Bus Leagues is a celebration of grassroots football in all its glory. It's a book that will make you laugh, cry, and think about the power of sport to bring people together.
