From the moment Billy wakes up on Christmas morning, everything goes wrong. His presents are all broken, his family is fighting, and even the turkey is raw. As the day goes on, things only get worse. Billy's dog gets lost, his parents get arrested, and Santa Claus himself gets stuck in the chimney.

But even though Christmas seems like it's ruined, Billy never gives up hope. He knows that there must be a way to make things right again. With the help of his friends, Billy sets out on a hilarious and heartwarming adventure to save Christmas.

Along the way, Billy learns the true meaning of Christmas and what it really means to be happy. He also learns that even when things are at their worst, there is always hope.
