In the heart of the American Civil War, where the clash of ideologies raged across a divided nation, a captivating tale unfolds in the pages of Uncivil Affairs. This gripping historical fiction novel transports readers to a world of divided loyalties, forbidden romances, and treacherous plots.

A Woman Caught in the Crossfire

At the center of this poignant story is Eleanor "Ellie" Hayes, a young woman from a prominent Southern family. As the war erupts, Ellie finds herself torn between her love for Confederate Captain William "Will" Caldwell and her deep-seated abolitionist beliefs. Caught in the crossfire of a bitter conflict that threatens to shatter her world, Ellie must navigate a complex web of secrets, betrayals, and hidden desires.

Love Amidst the Chaos

Ellie's forbidden romance with Will, a dashing Confederate officer, tests the boundaries of her loyalty and her heart. As their love blossoms amidst the chaos of war, Ellie must confront the consequences of her divided allegiances. Torn between her love for Will and her beliefs in freedom and equality, she embarks on a perilous journey filled with danger, heartache, and self-discovery.

Treachery and Betrayal

As the war intensifies, Ellie uncovers a web of treachery lurking within her own family. Amidst the battlefields and ballrooms, hidden agendas and dangerous plots threaten to destroy everything she holds dear. With each revelation, Ellie must confront the true nature of those around her and the lengths they will go to protect their secrets.

A Journey of Transformation

Through her trials and tribulations, Ellie emerges as a strong and resilient woman. Driven by her unwavering determination and newfound self-awareness, she must make life-altering decisions that will shape her destiny and the fate of those she loves. Uncivil Affairs is not just a tale of war and romance, but a powerful exploration of personal growth, the complexities of love, and the enduring power of the human spirit.
