A Haunting Novel of Darkness and Deception

In the sprawling mansion of the Forbes family, wealth and privilege hide a dark secret. As the patriarch, Reginald Forbes, lies on his deathbed, his children gather, each with their own motives and ambitions. But as the family delves deeper into the darkness that surrounds them, they soon realize that the sins of the past are far from forgotten.

Emily, the eldest daughter, has always been the perfect child. Beautiful, intelligent, and ambitious, she has sacrificed everything to meet her father's expectations. But beneath her polished exterior lies a secret that could destroy the family.

Charles, the middle child, is a charming and charismatic playboy. But his reckless lifestyle and gambling debts have put the family in jeopardy. Desperate to save himself, he will stop at nothing to get what he wants.

And then there is William, the youngest son. Withdrawn and enigmatic, he has always been an outsider in his own family. But as the secrets of the past begin to unravel, William finds himself drawn into a dangerous game that will test his limits.

As the Forbes family faces its darkest hour, they must confront the unthinkable sins that have haunted them for generations. Greed, ambition, and betrayal have corrupted their hearts, and now they must pay the price.
